A Message From Your Lodge Chief

Hello, I am Jon Santini III, I am your 2022 Lodge Chief. I am attending college at Bowling Green State University where I am studying Business with a specialization in Management. In scouting, I am an Eagle Scout from Troop 90 in Plain City, Ohio. I have been extremely active in Scouting for my entire life. Through my scouting career, I have attended or staffed various trainings like NYLT, Blackfoot, and even National Leadership Seminar. In my troop I was heavily active and am continuing to stay active as an adult. Beyond the troop I worked on summer camp staff at Chief Logan Reservation in 2018 and 2019, and at Camp Hugh Taylor Birch in 2020 and 2021 being the Handicraft Director in the latter year. Over the years, I have also been active in the OA and Tecumseh Lodge since 2017. I recognized exactly how much fun it was at my Ordeal and, as a full fledged member, I was hooked. After serving as the Trading Post Chairmen in 2018, I was elected the Treasure for 2019 and 2020 then the Vice Chief of Administration for 2021. I was also chosen for the Vigil Honor in 2021. And now, I have the honor and privilege to be your Lodge Chief for 2022.

As your Chief, my main goal is to maintain the direction the lodge has been headed in for the past two years. Primarily with retaining and gaining members in the Lodge. Making the experience with Tecumseh Lodge as amazing as possible, I hope I can see all of you return to many more events. With this vision, I went to my fellow officers and learned about what they wanted to do to accomplish and achieve this vision. A few goals to achieve this task are; to improve and advertise committees more, improve the ritual experience, and do a communications overhaul. But most importantly, I want each and every one of you to feel like you have a place in this lodge; this is your lodge. If you have questions or want more information, I am readily available; come find me at an event, send me an email, or give me a call. I am here to serve the Lodge and that includes you. I look forward to a fantastic 2022 with all of you.

Yours in WWW,
Jon Santini III

ABOUT THE ORDER OF THE ARROW

HISTORY

The Order of the Arrow was founded by Dr. E. Urner Goodman and Carroll A. Edson in 1915 at the Treasure Island Camp of the Philadelphia Council, Boy Scouts of America. It became an official program experiment in 1922 and was approved as part of the Scouting program in 1934. In 1948 the OA, recognized as the BSA's national brotherhood of honor campers, became an official part of the Boy Scouts of America. In 1998, the Order of the Arrow became recognized as Scouting's National Honor Society when it expanded its reach beyond camping to include broader service to Scouting and the community.

PURPOSE

The Order of the Arrow was founded in 1915 to serve a useful purpose: to cause the Scout Oath and Law to spring into action in all parts of the nation. To this day, the Order is dedicated to this high purpose.

MISSION AND PURPOSE

For more than 90 years, the Order of the Arrow (OA) has recognized Scouts and Scouters who best exemplify the Scout Oath and Law in their daily lives. This recognition provides encouragement for others to live these ideals as well. Arrowmen are known for maintaining camping traditions and spirit, promoting year-round and long term resident camping, and providing cheerful service to others. OA service, activities, adventures, and training for youth and adults are models of quality leadership development and programming that enrich and help to extend Scouting to America's youth.

The Order of the Arrow has over 170,000 members nationwide.

HOW THE ORDER OF THE ARROW IS ORGANIZED

The Order of the Arrow has three distinct organizational levels; lodges, sections, and regions. Lodges carry out the Order of the Arrow program at the local level and are closely tied with Boy Scout Councils. Sections consist of several lodges within a geographic region and Regions in turn consist of Sections within a geographic region of the United States. Lodges, Sections, and Regions each have a distinct set of responsibilities which ensure that the OA program runs smoothly.

At the national level, the Order of the Arrow is governed by the national Order of the Arrow committee. The national committee sets policy, directs the national program of the Order, and broadly manages the organization above the local lodge level. The committee is composed of the national chief and national vice chief (and their immediate predecessors), who are elected annually at the national planning meeting; the chairman, who is appointed annually by the chairman of the national Outdoor Adventures committee; other volunteer members, appointed by the chairman; and two staff members, the director of the Order of the Arrow and the OA specialist.

Regions

The Order of the Arrow, like the Boy Scouts of America, is organized into two geographical regions: Eastern Region and Gateway Region. Each region is led by a youth region chief, a volunteer region chairman, and a region staff adviser. The region leadership helps execute the national program on a more local level, implements the National Leadership Seminar and National Lodge Adviser Training Seminar, provides its member sections with resources, and facilitates communication between local organizations and the national OA committee.

Sections

An Order of the Arrow section consists of lodges within a geographic area of the region. Each section is led by a chief, vice chief, and secretary, who play a crucial part in making the annual Conclave a success. The section may lead training seminars, promote national programs of emphasis, and provide resources to local lodges. The section chief presides over the Council of Chiefs, attended by delegates of each member lodge.

Where does Tecumseh Lodge fit in?

Tecumseh lodge is part of Section E13 in the Eastern Region.

During the year we will have two or three functions where we are directly involved with the other Lodges in our Section.

The Section Conclave is a gathering of the Lodges in the Section. It is hosted by a different Lodge each year, who will choose one of their camps to showcase. At the Conclave there will be training and competitions along with activities just to have fun and fellowship.

Forum, the Area Leadership Training Conference, is a training session held by Section E13. It is hosted each November by Tecumseh Lodge at Camp Lazarus. This is a great training opportunity for those interested in furthering their involvement in the Lodge by becoming a Lodge officer or a Chapter officer.

NOAC is a gathering of all the Lodges in the country and is held every two or three years.

YOU AND YOUR UNIT

An Arrowman's primary responsibility is to his troop or post. Remember, it was your fellow scouts or explorers who elected you into our noble order, and it is to them that you should devote most of your service. Dr. E. Urner Goodman, founder of the Order, once said, "Let it be remembered that the Order of the Arrow was created to help the unit - to help it present its membership a better idea of the inner qualities of the honor scout camper."

Qualities of character, like cheerfulness and service, are hard for a boy or a man to understand in the abstract. They come easier when seen in human life.

The Order was started to help glorify these qualities of the honor Scout Camper in the unit, so that they might be appreciated there, not only during the brief term in summer camp, but through all of the days and weeks of the year."

Let us remember the significance of the Order in the unit - for the unit is our one best hope in Scouting..."

What are your responsibilities in your home troop or post? You should make sure that your unit maintains an active camping program and that as many members as possible are involved. Be sure your lodge camp promotion team visits your unit at least once a year and that you have an annual Order of the Arrow election. Your unit should help the lodge give service to as many community projects as possible. It is also most important that you keep your unit members informed on current happenings of the lodge and in the local council.

YOUR RELATION TO YOUR UNIT

Always remember that your fellow Scouts honored you by electing you to the Order because of your Scout Spirit and camping ability. They set you apart as one from whom they expect a great deal. Your experience with the Ordeal should now enable you to give the leadership they want and need. For this reason, your first duty as an Arrowman is to continue and expand your service to your own troop or post. The success of the Order in your unit mainly depends on what you do individually. Your example of cheerful service in camp and at troop or post meetings is the spark that brings the spirit alive.

By striving to fulfill your Obligation you will not only help your fellow Scouts, you will also gain the experience needed to understand the Brotherhood membership.

THE JOURNEY FROM ORDEAL MEMBERSHIP TO BROTHERHOOD

Your completion of the Ordeal sets you on the next part of your long and toilsome journey; at least 6 full months of active preparation for sealing your membership in the Brotherhood Ceremony.

The Ordeal has introduced you to the mysteries of the Arrow. Now, during your service as an Ordeal member, you have ample opportunity to increase your knowledge of the Arrow and make it work for you.

The following gives all the basic information you will need during this important time. Your brothers in the Order also stand ready to help and you should take advantage of their support whenever possible.

The Challenges of Ordeal Membership

You must meet five challenges before you can enter the Circle of Brotherhood. The first of these you should meet now. The next three require steady effort over a period of many months. The last challenge you must meet after you are satisfied that you are meeting the first four.

1. Memorize the signs of Arrow Membership. Memorize the Obligation of the Order which you received from Allowat Sakima (printed on the back of your membership card). Also, memorize the Order of the Arrow song, the Admonition, the Sign of Ordeal Membership, and the Arrow handclasp.

2. Advance in your understanding of the Ordeal. Gain a thorough understanding of the Ordeal through which you have passed. Obtain a copy of the Manual for the Ordeal, or attend other Ordeal Ceremonies and learn more about what you have experienced.

3. Serve your Unit. Retain your registration in Scouting. During a period of at least 10 months, strive to fulfill your Obligation by continuing and expanding your service to your own Troop or Post.

4. Plan for service to your Lodge. Retain your registration in the Order of the Arrow Lodge and keep your dues paid. Be aware that acceptance of Brotherhood membership involves a pledge of service to the lodge. Develop a concrete idea of how you plan to fulfill this pledge.

5. Review your Progress. When you earnestly feel that you have met the four challenges above, write a letter to the Brotherhood Chairman. In this letter:

A. Explain what you think the Obligation means.

B. Describe how you have been fulfilling this Obligation in your troop or post and in your daily life, and how you have used your understanding of the Ordeal to aid in this service.

C. Describe your specific plans for giving service in the lodge program.

The Legend of the Order of the Arrow

Years ago, in the dim ages, In the Valley of the Delaware, Lived a peaceful tribe of Indians - Lenni Lenape their name was. Deer and bear, wildcat and panther through the forest oft they hunted. On the bosom of the river Peacefully they fished and paddled.

Round their busy village wigwams still the chase they nimbly followed. In this state of bliss so happy Many moons they lived contented, Springtime blossomed into summer, Summer into autumn ripened, Autumn died on winter's bosom; Thus the seasons in succession Never ending seemed to pass on.

But, behold, a cloud arising Changed how soon this peaceful aspect. Neighboring tribes, and distant enemies, Suddenly disturbed their hunting. Then Chingachgook, aged chieftain Of the tribe, made quick inquiry: "Who will go and carry warning Of this dire and dreadful danger To all Delawares, our brothers?" But none wished to make the journey.

Then spoke up the noble Uncas, Worthy son of the old chieftain, "O my father, I am ready; Send me on this gracious errand. If we would remain a nation, we must stand by one another. Let us both urge on our kindred firm devotion to our brethren and our cause, Ourselves forgetting, Let us catch the higher vision. Let us find the greater beauty In the life of cheerful service."

Off upon the trail they started, Old Chingachgook and young Uncas; And in every tribal village Some were found who were quite willing To spend themselves in other's service. When at last the fierce marauders Were forced back to their own country And peace was declared between them, They who first themselves had offered For the service of their brethren, To the places most respected By the chieftain were promoted: For, said he, who serves his fellows Is, of all his fellows, greatest!

As a seed dropped by the sower On good soil bears quick fulfillment: So this saying of their chieftain In their hearts found glad acceptance And they asked that in some manner He should make its memory lasting.

So together fast and firmly Chief Chingachgook bound these warriors In a great and honored Order, Into which can be admitted Only those who their own interests Can forget in serving others. And so firm must be their purpose So to live that their companions, Taking note of their devotion, Shall propose them to the Order, We, therefore, to them succeeding To the present day perpetuate The names and tokens of this Brotherhood of Cheerful Service Called by Delawares: Wimachtendienk - Wingolauchsik - Witahemui.

Our Lodge Emblem

The legend that is told of the birth of Tecumseh informs us that his father was looking for an omen. At the moment of the child's birth, a green comet, the color of a panther's eye, shot across the sky. Thus he was named, in the language of the Shawnee, Tecumseh. It's meaning "panther crossing across."

To represent this historic leader's birth, we have chosen the form of a panther-shaped comet. The flap of our Lodge shows the unsomo, or birth sign of the panther streaking across the sky at the moment of Tecumseh's birth. The twelve stars on the flap are representative of the twelve points of the Scout Law. The four stars to the left of the arrow represent the 4 lodges that came together to form Tecumseh Lodge: Katinonkwat, Kaniengehaga, Maka-Ina, and Shawnee. The red arrowhead and shaft are the symbol of our order, pointing on an ever upward path.

As the sign of our order the arrow has been fitly chosen, for the first arrow of the hunter must be sure. The shaft should be straight, its point ever keen. As such it becomes a token of leadership, and as such we adopt it. The three W's, as on all OA patches, stand for the name of the Order of the Arrow in Lenni Lenape, Wimachtendienk, Wingolauchsik, Witahemui.

(National Order of the Arrow Conference)

NOAC is the premier event of the Order of the Arrow, and is Scouting's second-largest national event. In 2015, 15,000 Arrowmen from across our nation gathered at Michigan State University for an inspirational and unforgettable experience full of fellowship, training, adventure, and fun!

During NOAC, Arrowmen participate in a six-day conference which includes top notch training sessions, cool recreational opportunities, evening shows full of theatrics and special effects, and exciting programs.

The next NOAC will be announced soon.

If you choose to go, you will find a large selection of activities ranging from Native American dancing and regalia to scuba and snorkeling. The best thing is, YOU get to choose what you want to do and when you do it. At the last NOAC the list of possibilities was huge including hundreds of activities.

While at NOAC you and your roommate will stay in the University dorm rooms, sleeping on real beds with the University providing the linens and using indoor restrooms and showers. Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner will be served in the University Cafeterias where they do the cooking and the cleaning – all you have to do is return your tray.
